PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

A highly motivated Bachelor of Science in Information Technology graduate with practical experience in Unity game development, graphics design, UI/UX design, Agile software development, and multimedia production. Experienced in developing Android games, integrating Google Play services, implementing monetization systems, and optimizing applications for mobile devices.

During my internship at Precoce Technologies, I contributed to client projects by creating marketing materials, editing promotional videos, designing interfaces, and coordinating Agile development as a Scrum Master. Passionate about creating high-quality software and continuously improving technical skills through personal projects and hands-on development.
